If you hear this, call us:
“Sorry, we just rented the last apartment”
“No disability income, we only rent to working people”
“No children allowed”
“You have to be married”
“We must have lost your application”
“You’ll have to end your maternity leave and return to work before we can process your loan application”
“A boy and a girl can’t share a bedroom”
“You have to speak English outside of your apartment”
“If you go out with me, I’ll lower your rent payment”
“We won’t take your application if you have a criminal record”
“You might feel more comfortable in another neighborhood”
“You don’t look like I thought”
